Your Right to Cancel

If the contract formed with the student is not made in person and is instead a "distance contract" or an "off premises contract", the student shall have the right to cancel the contract should they give notice within 14 calendar days from the day following the day the student accepted the contract terms by submitting an Offer Acceptance form, paying the Tuition Deposit/Tuition Fee or Financial Guarantee (the 'Cancellation Period'). If a cancellation is received after we have commenced providing the services but within the 14 days "cooling off" period, the student will receive a refund of all amounts already paid, including any Administration Fee, less the cost of any services already provided by OIEG. Full terms & conditions for the specific College you applied for can be found here.

How to Cancel

To cancel your acceptance, you must clearly inform us before the Cancellation Period has expired. You may do this by:

- Sending a refund request via the online form
- Emailing pathwayrefunds@oxfordinternational.com

Administration Fee, Tuition Fee Deposit and Additional Payment

Please note that in other circumstances not covered by the points below, the Administration Fee, Tuition Fee Deposit and any Additional Payment are non-refundable. In circumstances where OIEG decides to grant a discretionary refund, OIEG will retain the Administration Fee already paid which reflects the incurred administrations and processing costs (except where otherwise stated).

OIEG Finance will refund within 28 days (during non-busy periods) of receiving correctly completed refund request form and all the required documentation. The refund will be processed via the same method the payment was originally made and only to the account that paid the funds. In case of original account being closed, then the payee and country of origin must be the same as the original account.

Please note, refunds not covered in the below table will be considered at OIEG's discretion.

REFUND POLICY

*Compensation

At the point of marketing its programmes, OIEG fully expects to deliver these programmes to students. However, there is a very small possibility of programme cancellations due to unexpected circumstances that can affect our current or prospective students. Should this happen, OIEG will seek to ensure that any related refund or compensation brings the affected students to the position where the student is not at loss due to the circumstances.

Students who are under 18 years and are required by OIEG to book their accommodation before receiving a CAS, are only eligible for a refund if their visa application is refused or if they have exceptional circumstances, at the discretion of the Director of Admissions. This refund would either be the deposit amount or a single month's rent deposit, depending on which of the two is the smaller amount.

Refunds will be subject to the student providing evidence of exceptional circumstance, proof of travel to the student's home country or proof of enrolment to the new institution in the UK.
